Make observations about the different types of canyons, valleys, and mountain ranges in Utah. You can draw or write about a canyon or mountain.

Observation

Make inferences about what elements, such as wind, water, and climate, about what helped shape that canyon or mountain:

Inference
Play with the sand and water in the erosion table. Can you make a mountain or canyon that is shaped by the water. Draw or describe what your group did at the erosion table.