Record by drawing or writing three different objects in the gallery Native Voices Gallery:

How are traditions passed down from one generation to the next.
Draw or write about a tradition you learned about in this gallery or one that your family passes on from one generation to the next generation: