Natural History Museum of Utah Volunteer Program
Tidbit Tour Guide Volunteer

NHMU Mission:
The Natural History Museum of Utah illuminates the natural world and the place of humans within it. Tidbit Tour volunteers will spark excitement, curiosity, and an appreciation for the natural world in field trip guests.

Position Summary:
Tidbit Tour Guides give 10-15 minute mini-tours to small groups of field trip guests in the Museum galleries. Facilitate tour stops in the galleries for field trip visitors to explore and engage in-depth with Museum exhibits and content. Help respond to visitors’ needs and questions regarding facilities and exhibitions.

Department: School Programs
Supervisor: Annie Young, Education Program Specialist

Skills/Abilities:
- Enjoy working with students
- Comfortable managing large groups
- Good oral communication skills
- Excited about science
- Comfortable and calm in high-activity, high-energy, and noisy environments

Benefits:
Volunteers at the Natural History Museum of Utah enjoy benefits that are intellectual, social, and meaningful. Volunteers have the opportunity to expand their knowledge of the natural world through specialized trainings, behind-the-scenes access, and interaction with the Museum’s research staff; they can broaden their social circle by making connections with fellow volunteers, Museum staff, and Museum guests; they contribute to scientific research, and make an impact in increasing scientific literacy and awareness in the local community, and beyond.

In addition, the Museum offers the following benefits:
- Volunteer t-shirt and nametag
- Free admission into the museum
- Two free guest passes for every 25 hours of service
- Museum Membership discount
- Discount at Museum Store and Café
- Use of the volunteer lounge
- Continuing Education programs, including lectures and tours
- Professional development opportunities
- Invitation to social and recognition events
